ORDER (ORAL)

HON'BLE DR.K.B.SURESH      ...MEMBER(J)

MA.No.499/2018 for impleading of applicant therein is allowed as the respondent.

2. Heard. Apparently the applicant has a right to be posted to a favourable place within 2 years of her superannuation as held by several Apex Court Judgments. But at the same time, this right is also circumscribed by other parameters, which indicate that if for functional convenience, some accommodation is to be made, it has to be done. Now apparently the UNDP, which is a United Nation's Agency has taken out certain development work in the field of Youth Development. In the State of Karnataka, Mangalore District was selected as the pilot project district. In accordance with the stipulations between the United Nation and Union of India, one Shri S. Raghuveera, has been appointed as project officer, who will work as District Youth Coordinator in Mangalore. The applicant had challenged this appointment, as she will then be transferred to Chickmagalur, which is also within 50 kms from Mangalore. She does not want to go there. She contends that since she would be superannuating in another 2 years' time, she may have a right for a favourable posting at the fag end of her career. But then when Union of India has entered into an internal agreement with the United Nations, the functioning of it must be held to have submerged this right of the applicant. Therefore, the applicant will have no other choice. If she cannot choose Chickmagaluru, then the respondents would submit that she may choose Udupi, which is also nearby district. Therefore, we will allow the applicant to issue a letter of choice between Chickmagaluru or Udupi or if possible some other district as well, as per her choice. This also will be made subject to the condition that as soon as UN Project ends, she has a right to be posted back at Mangalore once again. We will grant her this liberty also. But then, this officer for pilot project to go on. Within the next 3 days the applicant will express her choice. The respondents to adhere to this choice within the next 2 days.

3. The OA is disposed of permitting the additional respondent, newly impleaded, to be posted at Mangalore immediately. No cost.
