(PER HON'BLE DR.K.B.SURESH, MEMBER (JUDL.))

Heard. The matter related to compassionate appointment. Following our order to conduct a numerical gradation system as followed by the other government departments, the respondents also had considered 88 people on numerical gradation basis which is more objective than the earlier system prevailing. Now it appears that the applicant had got lesser marks than is warranted by the number of vacancies and only those who have more marks can be appointed. That being so, the applicant cannot be accepted but then he will be eligible to get the details of 88 people and marks obtained by them as well as the basis for such selection on gradation as a speaking order. This we will direct the respondents to give it to the applicant within two(2) weeks next and we also grant liberty to challenge it if he so desires after he gets the documentation. The present OA will not lie for the reason that the applicant is found not to be eligible. Dismissed with the above direction with liberty. No costs.
