Heard. The applicant raised one pertinent point that against the existing Contract Labour Abolition Act can the governance system engage a contract labour. Even though it has been mandated by the 5th Pay Commission, the answer has sure been in the negative because a statute cannot be counter-mandated by an executive order. But the fact remains that according to the applicant, the claim of the applicant has arisen in 2014 and he has approached the Tribunal in 2018. We are in no position to considering the matter which has been rendered limited by efflux of time. The OA is therefore dismissed. No costs.
