- vii) Such order or further order direction or directions, as Your Lordships deem fit and proper in the interest of justice."

2. Heard Ld. Counsel for both sides. The matter is taken up at the admission stage.

3. The applicant's submissions, as articulated by her Ld. Counsel, is that the applicant's husband, who had expired on 23.7.2006, was working as an unskilled labour with the respondent authorities. That, after his demise, the applicant had prayed for appointment on compassionate ground which was, however, rejected by the concerned authorities as a belated prayer. On coming to know that there are vacancies in the post of Multi Tasking Staff, the applicant submitted another representation, which was forwarded to the Commanding in Chief, Eastern Naval Command, Vishakapatnam for consideration. That, although the applicant is working on temporary basis in the same department, the amount received from such engagement being too meagre to sustain her family comprising two children, the applicant has approached the Tribunal for reconsideration of her case, challenging the orders of the respondent authorities dated 29.12.2015.

Ld. Counsel for the applicant submits that vide communication dated 12.11.2018, the Flag Officer Commanding-in-Chief Headquarters Eastern Naval Command, Visakhapatnam had been requested by the Commander-in-Chief of A&N Command to re-examine the case of the applicant on extreme compassionate grounds, that the decision from the Commander-in-Chief is still awaited and that the applicant would be fairly satisfied if a direction is issued to the concerned respondent authority to dispose of the reference in her matter within a specific time frame, in accordance with law.

4. Ld. Counsel for the respondents does not object to early disposal of the reference, in accordance with law.

5. Accordingly, without entering into the merits of the matter, and, with the consent of the parties, we hereby direct the respondent No. 2, who is the Commanding in Chief, Eastern Naval Command, Visakhapatnam, to decide in accordance with law, upon the reference dated 12.11.2018 by the Commander-in-Chief A&N Command (Annexure A-5 to the O.A.) with respect to the representation for compassionate appointment of the applicant and to convey his decision in the form of reasoned and speaking order within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. With this, the O.A. is disposed of. No costs.
