Respondents

(Advocate: Mr.V.A.Shaji, ACGSC)

The OA having been heard on 15th July, 2019, this Tribunal delivered the following order on the same day:

O R D E R (oral)By E.K.Bharat Bhushan, Administrative Member

Today, Smt.Kala T, learned counsel for the applicant submitted that she wishes to file a rejoinder. Sri V.A.Shaji, learned ACGSC, on the other hand, submitted that the OA itself is premature because, against the transfer order dated 6th June, 2019, a representation dated 10th June, 2019, a copy of which is available at Annexure A5, was filed, addressed to the first respondent through proper channel. It is submitted that the representation is engaging the attention of the first respondent who shall be shortly deciding it on merit.

2. At this point, we are of the view that the OA can be disposed of by directing respondent No.1 to consider the representation referred to above, in accordance with law, and take an expeditious decision on it, in any case within thirty days from receipt of this order. Ordered accordingly.

3. The applicant is not to be disturbed from his present station until the representation is considered and disposed of. OA stands disposed of.
