4. The respondents in their reply have submitted as under:-

4.1 This Tribunal is not the appropriate forum to obtain information. If the applicant is not satisfied, he can approach appropriate forum as per RTI Act.

4.2 The applicant has secured 40.838 marks, whereas the last called OBC candidate has secured 44.581 marks. Hence, he was not called for document verification.

4.3 As per Para (iii) of Railway Board's letter No.E(RRB)2003/25/7 dated 04.06.2003 (Annexure R/2), "Out of both the components i.e. Written Test & Aptitude Test for selection for the safety category Marks obtained in written test should be added to marks obtained in Aptitude Test to prepare a combined merit list on basis of total marks of 100.”

4.4 The applicant was informed vide letter dated 19.09.2016 (Annexure A-5) that his “written score was 31.34% normalized marks and 30% of aptitude marks was 18.9. Thus, the 70% marks of written examination comes 21.938 plus aptitude marks $18.9 = 40.838$ was total obtained marks for the post of Assistant Loco Pilot of CEN 01/2014 while the cut-off marks for document verification was 44.581 marks.

However, the same is available for inspection. This has been communicated to the applicant through Annexure R-10. However, no one has approached respondent No.4 for inspection of answer sheets.

5. Heard the learned counsel for both the parties and perused the pleadings available on record.

6. The cause of instant Original Application has arisen due to the interpretation of contents of letter dated 19.09.2016 (Annexure A/5) by the applicant.

7. Letter dated 19.09.2016 (Annexure A/5) communicated to the applicant that

(i) The applicant has obtained 31.34% normalized marks in written examination.

(ii) The applicant has obtained 53,42,52,51 and 51T scores in different tests of Aptitude Test, according to which he got 18.9 (30%) marks.

(iii) Combined total of 70% of written exam and 18.9 (30%) marks in Aptitude Test makes a total of 40.838.

(iv) The cut off for various categories is available on website.

7.1 Cut off for OBC candidates as per website is 47.758 (Annexure A/6). Respondents in their reply have stated it to be 44.581.

8. As per the applicant, he has obtained 31.34 +18.9 i.e. a total of 50.24 marks, which is above the cut off for OBC candidates.

9. However, the respondents have explained that the applicant has obtained 31.34% normalized marks. When the same is reduced to a base of 70, it becomes 21.938 marks. Then the Aptitude Test marks of 18.9 are added, the total becomes 40.838, which is below the cut off level of 44.581.

10. We are convinced with the arguments advanced by the respondents and find that the applicant has scored marks which are less than cut-off. Hence, he cannot be placed in select list.

11. Accordingly, the Original Application is dismissed, as it is without merits. No costs.
