No. 104 of 2014, claiming seniority over and above Shri Nikhil Ranjan Biswas, as claimed by Shri Anup Kumar Mitra in O.A. No. 295/2017. Although, applicants' representations, submitted on different dates vide Annexure-A/7 to this O.A., have not been disposed of, Ld. Counsel for the applicants, had repeatedly asked for a direction upon the Respondents for consideration of the representations and issuance of speaking order. We note that such a direction could have been issued, at the outset, when the matter was yet to be admitted or before completion of pleadings.

4. Respondents have filed a reply wherein the seniority position of the applicants vis-à-vis Nikhil Ranjan Biswas has been depicted as under:

Sl. No.	Name of the Official	Date of entry in the Department	Designation prior to 01.08.91	Seniority position in the first combined gradation list corrected upto 01.07.2002	Remarks
1.	Asit Das	19.7.88	LDC	237
2.	Malay Guha Majumder	23.8.78	LDC	218
3.	Ajay Kumar Banerjee	30.10.79	LDC	221
4.	Radhyashyam Basak	24.12.87	LDC	229
5.	Radhashyam Mondal	05.05.87	LDC	224
6.	Mohan Chandra Mondal	09.01.84	LDC	204
7.	Wumesh Chandra Mahato	12.05.87	LDC	225
8.	Sri Nikhil Ranjan Biswas	11.11.70	LDC	263	Trfd in W.B.Circle on 22.5.95 under Rule-P&T 38 of Manual Vol-IV

A bare perusal of the chart exemplifies that the Nikhil Ranjan Biswas is way above the applicants in terms of date of entry or eligibility to TBOP/BCR. However, applicant has claimed that Biswas having joined the W.B. Circle in 1995, his seniority should reckon from 1995 and not from 11.11.1970.

5. In A.K.Nigam v Sunil Misra, 1994 SCC (L&S) 539, Union of India v C.N.Poonnappan, 1996 SCC (L&S) 331, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that on transfer from one unit to another on compassionate ground an employee may be placed at the bottom of the seniority list, but the service rendered by him at the other unit, if regular service, has to be counted towards experience and eligibility for promotion in the new unit.

The above principle of counting of experience for the purpose of eligibility for promotion came up before the Hon'ble Supreme Court once again in Scientific Adviser to the Raksha Mantri v V.M.Joseph, 1998 SCC (L&S) 1362. In this case the respondent was a Storekeeper at Central Ordnance Depot, Pune from 27.4.1971 to 5.6.1977. On his prayer, he was transferred on compassionate ground to Cochin Depot on 6.6.1977 with bottom seniority. In the new office, a post of Senior Storekeeper was created but promotion to the post was given to the immediate senior to the respondent. The respondent successfully challenged the same when the Union of India filed the instant appeal. The plea of the Government was that respondent could complete the required 3 years regular service only subsequent to his transfer and therefore was not eligible. The Hon'ble Apex Court rejected the contention and settled the law thus:

"Even if an employee is transferred at his own request, from one place to another on the same post, the period of service rendered by him at the earlier place where he held a permanent post and had acquired permanent status, cannot be excluded from consideration for determining his eligibility for promotion, though he may have been placed at the bottom of the seniority list at the transferred place. Eligibility for promotion cannot be confused with seniority as they are two different and distinct factors."

6. In Renu Mallick v Union of India, 1994 SCC (L&S) 570, case where the promotion rules for the post of Inspector provided for 5 years experience as U.D.C. or 13 years experience in the posts of L.D.C. and U.D.C. together with at least 2 years service in the post of U.D.C., it was held that there being no stipulation in the rules that the employee being eligible as per rules should be considered for promotion to the post of Inspector. In that case, the employee came on transfer "on her own request", therefore, her seniority in previous Collectorate was taken away for the purpose of her seniority in the new charge, but that had no relevance for judging her eligibility. It was held that seniority and eligibility are different concepts and her past service was also counted for the purpose of eligibility. The appellant having met the eligibility as per rules by rendering service of 5 years as U.D.C. and a total service of 13 years for computing the qualifying service the Court allowed the application.

7. Identical arguments have been advanced by the applicants in O.A.No. 295/2017 banking upon the Gradation List of 2007, which stood corrected later on. Having noted that the applicants therein entered into service long after Sri Nikhil Ranjan Biswas who was granted TBOP/BCR benefits upon due completion of 16 and 26 years of service, in accordance with the Scheme, and the applicants having failed to substantiate their claim that they stood on par with Sri Rabindra Nath Modak, applicant in O.A. No. 1108/2008, the O.A. stood rejected. Under similar circumstances, we feel that no relief can be granted to the present applicant. Accordingly, his claim fails. Respondents having disclosed the entire facts, we find no reason to remand the matter back to the authorities for issuing a speaking order on the representation.

8. O.A. is, accordingly, dismissed without any order as to costs.
