O R D E R (Oral)

Per Ms. Bidisha Banerjee, JM:

Heard both.

2. Liberty was granted by this Tribunal in OA. 272/2007 on 30.03.2012 to the respondents to start the inquiry afresh by appointing new inquiry officer in place of CDI, CVC Smt. Salini Darbari and the authorities have also taken a decision to conclude the same but even in 2019 we find that the inquiry proceedings have not been concluded. The respondents nowhere state in the reply, that delay is attributable to the applicant.

3. Therefore, we direct the authorities <sup>b</sup>either to conclude the inquiry proceedings within 3 months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, failing which they would release the held up retiral dues, within a period of one month thereafter.

4. In the event they are able to conclude the inquiry with a final order within three months, such final order shall then govern the release of benefits.

5. OA accordingly stands disposed of. No costs.
