ORDER (ORAL)

Per : Shri R. Vijaykumar, Member (A)

Today when the case is called out, learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has received a copy of a letter sent by the Higher Education Department proposing pension sanction on pro-rata basis covering the period claimed in this OA and he is awaiting final orders from the Government for sanction and disbursement and they are likely to come in due course.

2. Learned counsel for the respondents was also heard in the matter. There is no purpose in keeping this OA alive in the context that proposals have been sent for final sanction and they are likely to emanate in due course.

3. Therefore, the Original Application is closed. The applicant will be at liberty to revive the matter, if such orders of Government are not forthcoming in a reasonable time or are not in his favour. No costs.
