Order(Oral)

Hon'ble Shri Sarweshwar Jha

Applicants are aggrieved by impugned order dated 19.12.2002 whereby the respondents have not considered the applicants for promotion to the posts of Inspector.

2. Applicants have claimed that their cases have not been considered within the instructions issued by the Govt. vide their office memorandum dated 11.7.2002, a copy of which is placed at Annexure-B. One of the provisions stipulated in the said Office Memorandum relates to appointment/promotion of SC/ST candidates on their own merit and such appointments not being adjusted against the reserved points of the reservation roster. They will be adjusted against unreserved points.

3. The facts of the case are that the applicants have also been put to physical test for the posts of Inspector which was conducted on 5.12.2002 at Central Excise Noida and they were found fit for the said posts. According to them, are 98 vacancies existed in the posts of Inspector and 22 posts should have been reserved for SC/ST candidates. They have also promoted some general candidates (9 of them) against SC/ST quota. the applicants had submitted representations to the respondents on 9.12.2002 regarding filling the vacancies againstt SC/ST quota by promotion, but they have complained that the said representation has not been considered by the respondents, who have now issued the impugned order dated 19.12.2002.

4. It is observed that the respondents have not filed their reply despite the last opportunity having been given to them on 11.12.2003. They had been given further time to file reply on 28.1.2004; but the same has still not been filed. The Learned counsel for the private respondents, Shri D.R. Gupta has, however, submitted that it needs to be looked into whether the applicants have been appointed/promoted to their present posts on merit and whether their case is covered under the decisions of the Hon'ble Apex court on the subject.

5. Keeping in view the submissions made by the learned counsel for the applicants and the learned counsel for the private respondents and also having regard to the facts that the relevant instructions of the Govt. regarding reservation in promotion and also the representation of the applicants are already available on the record with the respondents, we are of the opinion that the Original Application can be disposed of at this stage with directions to the respondents to consider the matter as submitted by the applicants, and dispose them of by issuing a reasoned and speaking order within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. With this, the OA stands disposed of in terms of above the observations. No order as to costs.
