We have heard the learned counsel for the parties in CP 180/2003 and also perused the relevant documents, including the annexures to reply affidavit filed by them. The Tribunal by order dated 24-1-2003 in OA 200/2003 has disposed of the OA without notice to the respondents, directing them to dispose of the representation of the applicant by a speaking order, which they have done. Further the Tribunal itself has granted ~~the~~ liberty to the applicant/petitioner to approach the Tribunal in appropriate fresh original proceedings, if so advised, in accordance with law, in case he has any further grievance.

2. We are, therefore, unable to agree with the contentions of Sh. D.P.Sharma, learned counsel that the subsequent orders issued by the respondents can be taken as subject matter of this contempt petition, as there is no wilful or contumacious disobedience of the Tribunal's order by the respondents.

3. In the facts and circumstances of the case, we find no good grounds to continue with CP, CP 180/2003 is accordingly dismissed. Notices to the alleged contemnors are discharged. File to be consigned to the Record Room.
