O R D E R (ORAL)

Hon'ble Smt. Lakshmi Swaminathan:

None for the applicants even on the second call. This is a part heard matter and was specifically listed today in the forenoon by order dated 4.12.2003, in the presence of all the learned counsel for parties.

2. In the circumstances, we have further considered the preliminary issue raised by the learned senior counsel for respondents together with the other learned counsel for respondents, particularly in terms of the Hon'ble Delhi High Court's order dated 5.11.2003 in CWP-7004/2003, copy placed on record. The respondents have submitted that having regard to the provisions of Section 2 (a) of Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985, as the applicants originally belong to one of the Armed Forces of the Union, e.g., the Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) and the Special Protection Group (SPG), ~~and~~ the impugned orders passed in the aforesaid cases have a bearing on their service conditions. We find force in the submissions of all the learned counsel for respondents. Further, Shri Arun Bhardwaj, learned counsel had submitted that the applicants in the aforesaid Writ Petition pending before the Hon'ble Delhi High Court also belong to CRPF which fact has been confirmed by all the learned counsel for respondents. In the order of the Hon'ble High Court dated 5.11.2003, we note that the counsel for respondents were also present and notices were accepted by them. The judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in L. Chandra Kumar v. Union of India & others, (1997) 3 SCC 261 is fully applicable to the facts in the present cases.

3. Noting the fact that in a similarly situated position, the Hon'ble High Court has been pleased to issue notice to the respondents in its original jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, we find force in the submissions of Shri N.K. Aggarwal, learned senior counsel, Shri Ajesh Luthra, learned counsel and Shri Rajeev Bansal, learned proxy counsel that the present OAs are not maintainable in the Tribunal for want of jurisdiction. Needless to say, it will not be either proper for this Tribunal at this stage or in the interest of justice to pass any orders which may have a bearing on the merits, while the same issues are pending before the Hon'ble High Court, particularly also having regard to the provisions of Section 2 (a) of A.T. Act, 1985.

4. In view of the above, the aforementioned OAs (OA-1934/2003, OA-1179/2003 and OA-1389/2003) are dismissed for want of jurisdiction, with liberty to the applicants to proceed, as advised, in accordance with law. In the circumstances, registry is directed to return the papers to the applicants, keeping one set for record purposes in accordance with the Procedure Rules.

5. Let a copy of this order be placed in OA-1179/2003 and OA-1389/2003.
