Applicant is not present. However, we had the benefit of hearing the standing counsel appearing on behalf of respondents 2 and 3. Counsel submits that consequent to the orders passed by this Court the posting, that was expected to be given to the officer, had been ordered and the arrears of pay has also been paid .

2. Of course, for his promotion, ¹⁷he ¹⁵has submitted that Screening Committee has met, the steps have been taken and it is expected that within the next two weeks, orders would be passed. Accordingly counsel submits that there is full compliance. The UOI is only a formal party. In these circumstances, we find that there is no contumacious conduct. Application is closed, however, reserving liberty for the applicant to agitate grievance in case of necessity. Respondents are discharged.
