O R D E R (ORAL)

Shri Sarweshwar Jha,

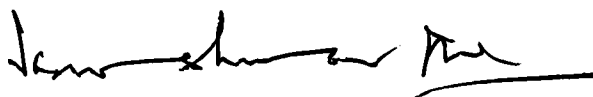

Heard the ld. counsel for the parties.

2. On perusal of the reliefs that the applicant has sought through this OA, it is observed that the main relief that she has sought relates to her posting in Delhi with all consequential benefits. But in the meantime the applicant has joined KV-2, Ambala Cantt in response to the Memorandum as issued by the respondents on 30-4-2004. With her having joined at Ambala Cantt, the relief that she has prayed for does not survive and with that this OA becomes infructuous.

3. Ld. counsel for the applicant did make a mention that the applicant's request for treating the period 1995-2000 during which her application for voluntary retirement remained pending with the respondents should have been given due consideration and necessary relief given by treating that period as on duty, as prayed for. However, it is observed that no mention has been made of the said matter in this OA nor is there any mention of the fact that any representation in the matter has been pending with the respondents in this regard.

4. Under these circumstances and keeping the above position in view, this OA stands disposed of as having become infructuous. However, the applicant shall be at liberty to pursue the matter regarding consequential benefits that she has referred to, particularly the period 1995-2000 being treated as on duty, separately as per law, if so advised.
