(HON'BLE DR. K.B. SURESH, MEMBER (J))

Heard. Apparently the charges I and II reflected matters relating to integrity which was not proven. Charges III and IV relate to non-entering of passbook even though in the system it has been updated regularly. It appears that there were only 2 Postal Assistants and 18194 passbooks to be updated. Going by the norms, it will take a person 284 days to update it. The applicant submits that based on the work load and availability of the time at his command he cannot be so much burdened. However we find that the representation filed by the applicant had been rejected only on the ground of delay. We will, therefore, direct the concerned official to pass appropriate orders on merit after hearing the applicant without considering the question of delay and pass appropriate orders within two months next.

2. The OA is allowed to this limited extent. No order as to costs.
